

“Judges, like all other persons, are required to act within the law. This is the essence of the RULE OF LAW, and this is the essence of the EQUAL RULE OF LAW.”

— Pellegrino v AMPCO System Parking, 486 Mich 330, 353-354 (2010).

“The most fundamental premise of the RULE OF LAW is that equivalent misconduct should be treated equivalently.”

In re Brown, 461 Mich 1291, 1292 (2000).

“This is the essence of the RULE OF LAW: to know in advance what the rules of society are.”

Robinson v City of Detroit, 462 Mich 439, 467 (2000).

“The RULE OF LAW is a[n] . . . entitlement of persons to have their behavior governed by rules publicly fixed in advance.”

Landgraf v USI Film Products, 511 US 244, 265 n 18 (1994).

“Living under a RULE OF LAW entails various suppositions, one of which is that all persons are entitled to be informed as to what the State commands or forbids.”

Papachristou v Jacksonville, 405 US 156, 162 (1972).
